COURSE: TUM-GSC 122: LAW, MAN AND SOCIETY

INSTRUCTIONS: ALL Questions in Section A are Compulsory. Answer One (1) Question in Section B.

TIME ALLOWED: 2HRS

SECTION A (All questions in this section are compulsory)

1. President Abaji recently appointed Senator Danga as Minister of Transportation. The President said he had identified the maritime sector as a major source of revenue for the country if properly managed. He wants the Senator who has a lot of experience in the maritime sector to unlock the potentials of the country's maritime sector. To enable the Minister succeed, the National Assembly has amended the Merchant Shipping Act to delegate power to the Minister of Transportation to make any Regulation he deems necessary for the development of the maritime sector and such regulations will have the force of law.

   Answer the following questions:

   a) State and explain five reasons the National Assembly delegated law-making power to the Minister to make regulations for the maritime sector instead of making those regulations as the law-making arm of government? (20 marks)

   b) In what five ways can the law-making power delegated to the Minister be controlled since power corrupts and absolute power corrupts absolutely? (20 marks)

SECTION B (Answer one (1) Question)
